

Franz Kline (American, 1910-1962) Lehighton, 1945, oil on canvas. Purchase: Leigh Schadt and Edwin Schadt Art Museum Trust Fund, 2016. (2016.12)

I SPY TREASURE HUNT

Help us protect our artwork! Please don't touch the artwork in our galleries—the natural oils in our hands will cause damage slowly over a period of years. It's best to stay three feet away from artwork and the walls, so you have plenty of room in case of an accident.

This treasure hunt is sponsored by the Allentown Art Museum Auxiliary. Share your thoughts with us on social media tagging us at @AtownArtMuseum and #AAMatHome!

I Spy: The Lehighton Mural

Artist Franz Kline created a large mural of the town of Lehighton. This painting helps preserve the history of Lehighton and gives us a look into the past. The artist captured many highlights of Lehighton. Can you spot any? Sketch them in the spaces below.

A Train